

Southern Expansion, Indian Resistance and Removal (Pg. 256 – 262)

1. List reasons why westward expansion was “a southern phenomenon”?
2. How did Indian nations survive the growing pressure to move of their homeland and deal with the reality that their ways and traditions were not respected by the more “civilized” white Americans?
3. What was President James Monroe’s reasoning for moving the Indian tribes out of the Southeast? (This is similar to the position held by Andrew Jackson.)
4. Describe the basics of the Supreme Court case Cherokee Nation v. Georgia (1831).
5. Describe the basics of the Supreme Court case Worcester v. Georgia (1832).
6. How did Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren respond to John Marshall’s rulings in the two case referenced in questions 4 and 5?
7. What was the Trail of Tears?
