

Monday, September 6 – Friday, September 10

Monday, 9/6: The Stamp Act Congress

- Review growing tension between Crown and colonies (1763)
 - o Who will pay for the war debt and other financial problems of the crown?
 - o Whose interests are more important in political decision-making process?
- Stamp Act Congress

Homework: DARN night

Tuesday, 9/7: Growing Independence

- Finish Stamp Act Congress discussion
- Loyalists vs. Patriots vs. Neutral colonists
- Introduce Declaration of Independence

Homework: Actively read handout “Declaration of Independence” and underline main ideas/important lines. See pg. 158 in textbook for additional help/information

Wednesday, 9/8: Road to Independence

- Discuss Declaration of Independence
- The War itself

Homework: Actively read pg. 163 – 167; focus on Treaty of Paris (ARQ available)

Thursday, 9/9: The Revolution Ends

- Finish discussing main points of the War
- Treaty of Paris (1783)

Homework: Make a list of potential issues you believe the young United States of America will face now that it is independent. Be prepared to present and justify them in class.

Friday, 9/10: The United States of America

- Wrap up Revolution and Treaty of Paris (1783)
- So what’s next for this new nation?
- Prep for quiz on Monday – what are major points of emphasis?

Homework: Prepare for Quiz – short answer questions

City Upon a Hill to Treaty of Paris (1783)